

Bibliography

1. "Asia Pacific Power Survey, Infrastructure Finance Ratings, " (1999), Std & Poors.
2. "Competition in Restructuring Electricity Market," Washington, Kirby Litograoh Company.
3. "Electricity Supply Industry Reform and Thailand Power Pool, " 2000 November.
4. "Malaysia Energy Market Report," (1999), Asian Power, April, pp26-28.
5. "Power & Environment Issues," (2000), Magazine of Electricity International, April, pp20.
6. "Reaching Target of Deregulation & Resolving Conflicts," (2000), Journal of Asian Power, July, pp27-29.
7. "Testing Times for HV Transmission Lines," (2000), Journal of Asian Electricity, September, pp16-18.
8. "The Organization of Competitive Wholesale Power Markets and Spot Price Pools, The National Council on Competition and the Electric Utility Industry, The Electric Industry Restructuring Series, " <http://www.ncouncil.org/pubs/pool.html>
9. "UK Electricity Supply Handbook, " 1998
10. ABC News.Com (2000), "On Alert Blackouts Feared as California Grid Becomes Overwhelmed," (December 17).
11. ABC News.Com (2001), "California Considers Becoming Power Broker and State Buying Wholesale Power to Ease Electricity Woes," (January 14th).
12. ABC News.Com (2001), "No Solutions to California Energy Crisis," (January 10).
13. Alan R. Stockdale (1999), "Outcomes of Reform in Victoria's Electricity Industry," Presentation by the Treasurer of Victoria, Manila (July 15th).
14. Akhtar, A and Taha, F. (1996), "Environmental Dimensions of Electric Sector Planning," 11th Conference on Electric Power supply Industry, Section 20.6, pp 247-256.

15. Aquila Insurance (2001), " Guaranteed Generation Product," Journal of Energy Power Risk Management (July), pp21.
16. Associated Press (2001), "Power Woes Deepen Wall Street Hammers Credit Rating, Stocks of California Utilities," (January 5th).
17. Barbieri and Garman (1996), "Putting a Price on Swings, " Energy and Power Risk magazine, October, pp16.
18. Black, Fischer (1976), "The Pricing of Commodity Contracts," Journal of Financial Economic 3 (January), pp167-169
19. Brennan, T.J, Palmer K.L. et. al , "A Shock to the System – Restructuring America's Electricity Industry."
20. Brett Humphreys (2001), "A real Reflection of Value," Journal of Energy Power Risk Management (May), pp39-40.
21. Department of Electricity and Gas Supply Malaysia (2000), "Electricity Supply Industry in Malaysia."
22. Dick Medd (2000), "ASEAN Power Market, Need Clear Direction," Magazine of Electricity International, April, pp16-17.
23. Frank C. Graves, James A Read, Jr., (1997), "Capacity Prices in a Competitive Power Market," London, The Brattle Group & Kluwer Academic Publishers.
24. Gordon Gemmill (1993), "Options pricing an International Perspective," England, McGraw-Hill Book Company, pp220-236.
25. Greg Keers (2001), "Risk Management and Volatility Profit System," Journal of Energy Power Risk Management (June), pp40-41.
26. Guillermo, R.B. and Tjarinto, C.G.Z, "Deregulation and Privatization in the Electric Power Industry of the ASEAN Member Countries: An Overview."
27. Helga Meier-Reinhold and Axel Muller-Groeling (1999), "Software System Energy Portfolio View for Risk Management Approach," Germany, McKinsey and Company.

28. Felton, E.L., and Harper, L.C. (1996), " Five Perspectives that need to be Recognised in a Competitive Electricity Market and how to use them for Market success," 11th Conference on Electric Power Supply Industry, Section 23.5, pp592-596.
29. Henley International Inc., (1997), "Competition in a Restructured Ontario Electricity Market," April.
30. International Energy Agency, "Electricity Market Reform in California."
31. International Private Power Quarterly Report (2001), " Malaysia's Private Power Status," Second Quarter, pp84-92.
32. James Griffin (2001), "Energy & the Law: Sending Shudders Around the World," Journal of Electricity International, May, pp32-35.
33. Joe Hanley (2001), " Swaps – Suitable Credit Derivatives?" Journal of Energy Power Risk Management (May), pp6-7.
34. Joel Hanley, Kim Johnson, Lynda Clemons, William Anderson (2001), " Insurance Derivatives – Double Indemnity," Journal of Energy Power Risk Management (July), pp18-19.
35. John E. Besant-Jones, Bernard W. Tenenbaum, Jamal Saghir, US Energy and Water Dept & World Bank Group (2001), "The California Experience with Power Sector Reform & Lessons for Developing Countries," World Bank, April, pp29-33.
36. Johnson, B, and Barz, G (1999), "Selecting Stochastic Processes for Modeling Electricity Prices, Energy Modeling and the Management of Uncertainty," Boston, Risk Books.
37. King, J. Michael, Hoch, J. Lance, and Gellings, W. Clark (1992), "Focusing on the Customer: Strategies for Growth and Profitability in the nExt Century," 9th Conference on Electric Power Supply Industry, paper no. 1-18.
38. Murray, B., John Wiley & Sons Ltd (1998), "Electricity Markets – Investment, Performance and Analysis," Issue Paper No.3, Choice of Market Model, Ontario Market Design Committee
39. Neil Gibbs (2001), "Restructuring the Power Markets: Lessons Learnt?" K.L, Malaysian Electric Power 2001 Forum, July, pp14-15.

40. NH Von Der Fehr and D Harbord, "Competition in Electricity Spot Markets - Economic Theory and International Experience."
41. Ontario Market Design Committee, "Choice of Market Model," Issue Paper No. 3.
42. Peta Miller (2001), "Competitive Energy Market in ASEAN & its Management Style," Journal of Asian Electricity, July, pp35-36.
43. Randy Baker (2001), "Collateralisation – Ways to reduce Credit Risk," Journal of Energy Power Risk Management (May), pp17-18.
44. Randy Begotka (2000), "The outsourcing challenges," Journal of Energy Power Risk Management (March), pp39.
45. Richard Mogg (2000), "Deregulated Market and Risk, in Need of Direction," Journal of Asian Power (August), pp17-18.
46. Secretaria de Energia, Mexico, "Policy proposal for structural reform of the Mexican electricity industry."
47. Shepherd, W.G., "Market Power in the Electric Utility Industry: An Overview."
48. The Associated Press (2001), "Power Woes deepen wall Street Hammers Credit Rating, Stocks of California Utilities" (January 5th).
49. The Business Time (2001), "Better Power Rates with Open Bidding," (June 5th).
50. The Edge (2001), "Does Tenaga Electrify you? Pros and Cons of a Difficult Investment Decision," (May 14th).
51. The New Straits Times (2001), "Generation Development in Malaysia," (January 12).
52. The Star (2001), "Take & Pay Scheme for TNB-IPPs Deals," (June 7).
53. The Star (2001), "TNB Plans to Adopt the Managed Market Model," (June 7).
54. The Star (2001), "YTL Joint Bid for Singapore Plants," (July 12).
55. The Sun (2001), "TNB Decides Against power pooling," (June 7).
56. Thomas Paulsen, Helga, Axel, Ueli, Carlos and Losif (2001), "Competitive Advantage in Open Power Markets," Journal of Energy Power Risk Management (February), pp35-38

57. Timothy J, Raymond K, (1996), "Policy Initiatives Competition to the Electricity Industry," Washington, Kirby Litograoh Company.
58. Timothy, Karen, Raymond, Vito and Dallas (16), " A shock to the System, Restructuring America's Electricity Industry," Washington, Kirby Lithograph Company, pp5.
59. Weiss, L. (1998), " How Suppliers can Profit in a Competitive Electric Market," PMA Online Magazine, www.retailenergy.com.
60. Wheeler, A.R. (1990), "Electricity Supply Industry to Encourage Effective Competition," 8th Conference on Electric Power Supply Industry, paper no.1-38.
61. World Bank (2001), "The California Experience with Power Sector Reform, Lessons for Developing Countries," April.
62. www. Isr.gov.au, "Reform of the Australian Electricity Supply Industry."