

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

begin with, I am deeply grateful to "Mazlan" for co-participating in dialogue journaling with me. Without the gifts of his time and effort in writing, this project would not have taken off. His co-operation and enthusiasm in this venture had made our journaling a rewarding experience for me as a teacher-researcher and therefore to him I offer my heartfelt appreciation and thanks.

This project has also benefited greatly from the teaching, discussions and comments of my supervisor, Associate Professor Dr. Saratha Sithamparam. Her dedication in teaching and her professionalism in supervision have strengthened the quality of my study immensely. To Dr. Saratha, as she is fondly called, my gratitude is beyond expression.

I also gratefully acknowledge the guidance and support of Associate Professor Dr. Samuel whose teaching has influenced my interest in dialogue journal writing. His positive reactions to my hazy idea of doing a project on dialogue journal writing encouraged me to seriously consider this line of study. I also like to acknowledge the contributions of other lecturers in the Faculty of Education for providing a rich environment for my post-graduate study in this university.

My appreciation would not be complete without mentioning my parents whose unconditional love and support have upheld and sustained me throughout these two years. My debt of gratitude and appreciation is beyond measure.

But not least, I am eternally grateful to God for His faithfulness in meeting all my needs. Great is His faithfulness. All thanks and glory be unto Him.
