Acknowledgement

I give thank and grateful to God for blessing me with the opportunity to pursue master's degree and for His grace in helping me to complete this research paper as a final part of my master's degree program. Throughout my research, many parties have given their ideas, advices and assistance. Their contributions serve as very valuable guidelines to the success of this research paper and I take this opportunity to thank all concerned.

I wish to thank my supervisor Professor Madya Dr Siti Rohani for her guidance in supervising my work and to all lecturers concerned in the Faculty of Economics (FEA) for their advice and support towards completing my master's degree.

I would like to express my appreciation to my beloved mum and to rest of my family members and also to my fiancée for their enduring moral support in all aspects throughout my post-graduate studies.

Lastly, I would like to thank all my beloved friends for their encouragement and motivation throughout my studies.
