

Content

Acknowledgement	i
Abstract	ii-iii
Content	iv-v
List of Tables and Charts	vi

CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION

1.1	An Overview of Education in Malaysia	1
1.2	Private Higher Education in Malaysia	4
1.3	Objective of the Study	6
1.4	Methodology of Content	7
1.5	Organisation of the Study	8
1.6	Terms and Definition	9
1.7	Limitations and Problems	10

CHAPTER 2: LITERATURE REVIEW 16-24

CHAPTER 3: MAJOR FACTORS FOR THE BLOSSOMING OF PRIVATE HIGHER EDUCATION IN MALAYSIA

3.1	The Role of Private Sector, Foreign Universities and College	25
3.2	The Role of Government Sector	27
	3.2.1 Government's Effort to Decrease Foreign Exchange Outflow	27
	3.2.2 The Democratization of Higher Education	32
	3.2.3 The Corporatisation of Public Universities	34
3.3	Rapid Economic Growth	35
3.4	The Rapid Growth of Information Technology (IT)	36
3.5	Human Resources Needs	37
3.6	Demand and Supply for Private Higher Education	39

CHAPTER 4: ACHEIVEMENTS AND CHALLENGES FACED BY PRIVATE HIGHER EDUCATION

4.1	Achievements	45
4.1.1	Contribution Towards the Diversity of Curriculum Deemed Relevant for National Economic Development	45
4.1.2	The Establishment of Franchised Degree Programs by PHE	46
	4.1.2.1 Foreign University Degree Franchised Programs	46
	4.1.2.2 Local Public University Degree Franchised Programs	47
4.1.3	The Establishment of Private University and Foreign University Branch Campus in Malaysia	47
4.1.4	The Establishment of More Professional and Vocational Courses	48
4.1.5	The Establishment of Distance Learning or Open Learning	50
4.1.6	Overall Achievements by Private Higher Education Sector	52
4.2	Challenges	54
4.2.1	Recognition of Courses	54
4.2.2	Higher Education Policy	55
4.2.3	Academic Standard, Students Performance and Reputation	57
4.2.4	Management Challenges	58
4.2.5	Challenges from Human Capital aspects	59
4.2.6	Facilities in Private Higher Education Institutions (PHEIs)	60
4.2.7	Competition	62
4.2.8	Cultures Issues	63

CHAPTER 5: CONCLUSION

5.1	Potentials of Malaysian Private Higher Education (PHE) Sector	68
5.2	Summary of Conclusion and Suggestions	72

Bibliography

Appendix

List of Tables

Table 1.1: Public Higher Education Institutions in Malaysia, 2000.

Table 3.1: Foreigners Studying in Malaysia, 1990-1995.

Table 4.1: Franchised Programs of Foreign Universities by 19 Approved Malaysian Private Colleges

Table 4.2: Franchised Programs of Local Public Universities by Malaysian Private Higher Education Institutions (PHEIs)

List of Charts

Chart 1.1: An Overview: The National Education System and Philosophy

Chart 1.2: An Overview: Types of Private Higher Education Institutions (PHEIs) in Malaysia.

Chart 3.1: Malaysian Students Studying in Australia, 1989/1997.