WHEREAS at a Congress held at Kuala Lumpur on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th days of March, 1946 and attended by the representatives of forty-one (41) Malay Associations in the Malay Peninsula, which expression hereinafter includes the Colony of the Straits Settlement, there was passed a unanimous resolution that the various Malay Associations now hereafter admitted as members in the manner hereinafter appearing should be united into and controlled by a Central Organisation.

AND WHEREAS at a further session of the said Congress held at Johore Bahru on the 11th Day of May 1946 and attended by us there was passed a unanimous decision that effect should be given to such resolution as aforesaid by signing this Charter of Incorporation both for and on behalf of ourselves and for and on behalf of our respective Associations whereby such Central Organisation as aforesaid may be established

NOW KNOW YE BY THESE PRESENTS that We both for and on behalf of ourselves and for and on behalf our respective Associations do hereby declare and agree as follows:

1. There shall be established a Central Organisation called the United Malays National Organisation (hereinafter called the Organisation) with headquarters at JOHORE BAHRU and our respective Associations shall be the foundation members thereof.
2. (i) The Powers hereby vested in the Organisation shall be as follows:
  - (a) To promote by all manner of lawful means the common objects of its members and to exercise any act in such in other matter or matters as may be delegated to it by any one or more members;
  - (b) To represent its members or each of them in the promotion of such objects and other matter or matters; and
  - (c) To arbitrate in any differences arising between its members
- (ii) Unless it is specifically provided for herein nothing in this clause contained shall authorize the Organisation in the exercise of any of the foregoing powers to act in any matter which is autonomous to any particular member or members.

3. Any Malay Association in the Malay Peninsula which has a membership exceeding one thousand (1,000) in number and whose objects include the advancement and betterment of Malays of or within the Malay Peninsula may on application be admitted to membership of the Organisation.
4. The Organisation shall consist of:
  - (a) The General Assembly
  - (b) The Executive Committee; and
  - (c) The Secretary General.
5. The General Assembly shall comprise not more than two (2) representatives from each member and shall meet at least once in every year: the first of such meetings shall be convened on or before the 12th day of May 1946.
6. The General Assembly shall have the power to create from time to time such department or departments as it may deem necessary for the attainment of the objects and aims of the Organisation.
7. The President of the Organisation shall be elected at a meeting of the General Assembly and shall hold office until the next President is elected.
8. The President shall have the power to appoint and dismiss the officers or sub-committees in charge of the different Departments of the Organisation, or any of them, provided that the President shall be responsible to the General Assembly for all acts or omissions of such persons in the exercise of their powers and duties. Anything done by the President in the exercise of such power shall be subject to confirmation by the General Assembly as soon as possible.
9. The President, the Secretary-General and such officers and chairman of such sub-committees as aforesaid shall constitute the Executive Committee.
10. Each and every member of the Organisation shall be liable to contribute towards the funds under the control of the Organisation in such sum as the General Assembly may determine.
11. The General Assembly shall pass regulations touching any matter or matters not specifically provided herein.

12. Nothing herein contained shall be amended except by a resolution passed at a meeting of the General Assembly

IN WITNEESS WHREOF the parties hereto have hereunto set their respective hands and seals this 11th day of May, 1946.
