ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the name Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

I would like to express my heartfelt appreciation to Associate Professor Dr Pazim @ Fadzim bin Othman for his valuable advice and guidance throughout the preparation of this research paper. Deepest gratitude owed to my families, especially to my belated and beloved mother, Ibma Fatima Abdullah, and to my respectable father, Saiman Darh, both for their sterling love, patience, encouragement and attention all along the way, not only during the duration of my studies but in every aspect of my life. To my courageous brother, Mohd Sham Saiman, for the valuable knowledge and experience. A very special appreciation indebted to my loving wife, Siti Zuraini Yassin, for her unfailing love, sacrifice and kindness. Not to forget, the staff of School of Business and Economics, University Malaysia Sabah, for their support throughout the duration of this postgraduate study. Last but not least, to all my friends: Rozilee Asid, Firdaus Abdullah, Ahmad Nasir Che Daud and to all those helpful ones – thank you all. On top of all, nothing is possible without the willingness of Allah the Almighty God, The Most Gracious, and The Most Merciful. May Allah bless us all. Amin.
