

Acknowledgements

While undertaking research work in the preparation of this paper, I have become greatly indebted to many people who so willingly rendered their help and guidance. To all of them I wish to express my gratitude.

I would like to record my appreciation to Yang Amat Berhormat Tan Sri Abdul Kadir bin Yusof, the Attorney-General and Minister of Law, Malaysia, who, despite a tight schedule, kindly granted an interview and furnished me with valuable documentation with regard to the subject under study.

I would also like to thank Mr. L.C. Vohrah, the Legal Adviser to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, whose invaluable assistance could not have been dispensed with.

I am grateful to the officers of the International Law Department in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the staff of the New Straits Times Library, and the staff of the Lincoln Cultural Centre for their help and co-operation in furnishing important material for this paper.

Finally, I wish to extend my deepest appreciation and gratitude to Cik Wan Warfah Hamzah, whose keen interest, guidance and encouragement throughout, made the completion of this paper possible.
