ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my utmost gratitude to my supervisor, Prof Madya Dr Cassey Lee Hong Kim for his guidance and helpful comments through the last 6 months as I ploughed through this research. I appreciate his patience in dealing with our differences in opinion during our chat sessions and some of which proved to be remarkably insightful.

I also wish to thank personnel from the Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission for assisting me in the process of data collection.

Last but not least, I am greatly indebted to my family for their continuous support throughout this research and I also wish to extend my special thanks to all who have contributed to my research one way or another.
