ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My sincere gratitude and appreciation goes to Prof. G. Naidu, whose valuable guidance, advice and reviews helped produce this study.

I am also grateful to Gas Malaysia Sdn Bhd and PETRONAS for providing the relevant information. I would also like to thank my sister, Ponmalar and my friend, Punitha who helped me produce this script, aiding me to compile my ideas and thoughts into this study. A word of thanks also goes to my mother who gave her support in many way. I hope this mention though small, reflects my deep gratitude.

Finally, I wish to express appreciation to my husband and my father who created a conducive environment which enable me to overcome the obstacles and made my effort worthwhile. This study is dedicated to my son, Naveen who in his own way, has been the inspiration for me to complete this undertakings.
