ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I shall hereby reckon my heartfelt indebtedness to my supervisor, Associate Prof. Dr. Mohammad Redzuan Othman for his invaluable guidance throughout the course of my dissertation. If not his efficient supervision, timely prompting and consistent encouragement, the completion of this dissertation would be almost impossible.

I am also indebted to Dr. Ng Kam Weng of the Kairos Research Centre for his loans of books and suggestion to the topic of study. Besides, I am thankful to Dr. Tan Kim Sai of the Malaysian Bible Seminary for his contribution of ideas to the study. I would also like to express my thankfulness to Mr. Ong Kien An, my ex-coursemate cum a lecturer of the East Asia History Department of the School of Social Science and Humanities of the TAR College for his gracious loans of various resources and continuous encouragement. I feel indebted too to Mr. Poon Kim Kee who has offered the technical support in the presentation of this dissertation.

I would like to thank all the staff of the faculty who have made the newly-established post-graduate degree course of Civilization Studies possible. I shall not leave out thanking all my support groups, namely my adopted sister Belinda Tiong, my network of ex-PKVians, CCFers, a number of individuals of FBC, ex-LIONers, etc.

Last but not least, I would shout out my love and gratefulness to my mum Madam Chan Giok Tin, whose company has been so real and appealing to my heart, especially when we struggled together in the midst of her sickness to press on with a hope, that she will be granted a prolonged life and that my dissertation will be a work that glorifies the Lord. Many thanks too to my father and siblings in hometown whose calls and emails have never ceased to bring me comfort and encouragement.

All praise of God, the designer and perfecter of my faith and life.
