

FLEXIBLE WORKING PRACTICES
AS AN EMPLOYEE RETENTION TOOL
IN MALAYSIA BANKING INDUSTRY

MASYANTI MANSOR

FACULTY OF BUSINESS AND ACCOUNTANCY

UNIVERSITY OF MALAYA

FLEXIBLE WORKING PRACTICES
AS AN EMPLOYEE RETENTION TOOL
IN MALAYSIA BANKING INDUSTRY

Masyanti Mansor

Bachelor of Science (Marketing Management)

Southwest Missouri State University

1997

Submitted to the Graduate School of Business
Faculty of Business and Accountancy
University of Malaya, in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Degree of
Master of Management

February 2012

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The completion of this research project has touched many people in my life and tremendous effort, time and patient have been devoted in ensuring a timely and complete submission of the project. As such, I would like to express my sincere gratitude and heartfelt thank you to my beloved family members, friends and colleagues who have either directly or indirectly contributed to the completion of this thesis project.

A special thank you goes to my supervisor, Dr Aida for her continuous support, guidance, knowledge sharing and advice in ensuring this thesis is completed well. Thank you Dr Aida, I am truly appreciative of the time and patience accorded to me throughout the supervisory duration.

Lastly, thank you to all who have participated in answering my questionnaire and provided their opinions on the research project. Your contribution and valuable feedback is highly appreciated.

Once again, thank you all for making this research project a success.