For family and friends whom I have neglected during my postgraduate study, I would like to thank you for your understanding and patience.

My heartfelt gratitude goes to my loving and caring family who have been a source of inspiration during my postgraduate studies. My late father had always instilled in his children the value of hard work whilst my mother has been a pillar of strength for the family. Special thanks also go to my sisters who have provided me with joy and laughter throughout my studies. To my brothers, I thank them for their encouragement. Lastly, deepest appreciation goes to my husband, Chee Yong, for his understanding, patience and love. This journey would not have been possible without his sacrifice and unwavering support.
