

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to offer my sincere thanks to the various individuals and heads of organizations who have assisted me in carrying out this study.

In particular, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my supervisor, Associate Professor Dr Sulaiman Ngah Razali for his constructive criticisms, patience and encouragement throughout the conduct of the study. His keen interest and support have not only enabled me to overcome many obstacles that I have encountered but also have made this study a reality.

My indebtedness also goes to Associate Professor Dato' Mohamed Yunus Mohd Noor, Mr X.A. Gomez, Mr Teh Pick Ching and Mr Ahmad Hozzi H.A. Rahman for their invaluable assistance in validating the instruments and for their constructive comments on the study. I would also like to thank Associate Professor Dr Khoo Phon Sai for his useful comments and suggestions on the writing up of this thesis.

My sincere thanks should also go to the teachers : Mrs Tan of Sekolah Menengah Taman Desa, Ms Kamala of Sekolah Menengah Petaling, Mrs Tay of Sekolah Menengah Bukit Bandaraya, and Mr Lim and Puan Noriyah of Sekolah Menengah Sri Pantai. They all have contributed a lot of their time in conducting the experiment and administering the tests.

Special thanks should also be given to all students who have participated in the study.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the heads of various organizations and schools in allowing me to carry out this study particularly the Directors of the Curriculum Development Centre, Ministry of Education, the Educational, Planning and Research Division, Ministry of Education and the Wilayah Persekutuan State Education Department; and the Principals of Sekolah Menengah Taman Desa, Sekolah Menengah Petaling, Sekolah Menengah Bukit Bandaraya and Sekolah Menengah Sri Pantai.

I am also grateful to all my friends and colleagues who have helped directly or indirectly in completing this study. Special thanks should go to Mr Abdul Wahab Ibrahim who had translated the instruments for me.

Finally, I would like to thank my husband, Mohd Tamrin, who has been very understanding and supportive and to my three children, Izzuddin, Islahuddin and Izzaty who have been very patient during the course of my study. I dedicate this thesis to them with all my love.
