

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my pleasure to extend my warmest appreciation to Prof. Rosiyah Yahya and Prof. Gan Seng Neon for their advice, encouragement, and patience while serving as my supervisors. Their guidance and attention to detail were invaluable to my research. Through our discussions, new insights were made apparent to me on every phase of my investigations.

My sincere gratitude to the staff members of the Chemistry Department, Faculty Science, University of Malaya for their cooperation and support and I would like to extend a special thanks to my lab members and friends for their genuine care, unfailing help and support.

Finally and most importantly, I would like to thank my family especially my husband, Rizal and my parents for their love, support, time, patience and sacrifice; Thank you.
