

TOPIC:

LEISURE ACTIVITIES, ATTITUDES AND SATISFACTION OF YOUTH IN THE CONTEXT OF MALAYSIAN YOUNG PARTNERS POLICY
(OFFICER 2)

Time of interview
Date
Location
Interviewee
Position of interviewee

INTERVIEW PROTOCOL

Describe the research, telling the interviewee about the:

- (a) Purpose of the study
- (b) Ensuring the interviewee that interview will be conducted with the data to protect confidentiality
- (c) Length of time the interview will take place.
- (d) Session will be audio taped and interviewer will take notes in the event.

Questions:Management

1. What is your role or job function in terms of organizing leisure activities for youths?
2. Who decides which officers or staffs handle each program? (Particularly on leisure activities)?
3. How is the leisure activities program mobilized?
4. Who authorized decision-making? Problem-solving?
5. What is the expected outcome of the programs/activities?
6. What is done after each program is settled or handled?

Finance

1. Is the money allocated enough for the program handled? How is it being allocated?
2. Do the youths have to pay to join any activities?
3. What is the function of Membership?
 - is it to support some funds for activities? Or money gained from participating outlets in the membership cards?
 - What inspire them to become members of YP

Personnel

1. Professional paid members?
2. What is your expertise?

Participants

1. Which age groups do you handle the most?
 - a. 15-25 (why)
 - b. Who are they? At-risks? Good students? Problematic?
2. Different races
 - a. How the selections are made for programs involvement?
 - b. Are participations well distributed among districts?

Programs (Programs may involve educational, character building, civic activities and many recreational pursuits, including sports, camping, arts and crafts.

- 1) Who design the activities?
- 2) What is your role during the activities?
- 3) What types of activities the youths like to involve in?
- 4) How long each activity takes place?
- 5) Are youths seemed to be satisfied with the activities they participated?
- 6) What are their attitudes towards the programs or activities organized?
- 7) How would you describe youths' involvement in the overall programs?

Other questions:

1. Is there any problems encountered before, during or after the programs?
 - Activities/programs
 - With the management
 - Staffs
 - Participants

2. What are your suggestions to improve the implementation of YP?
 - Activities/programs
 - With the management
 - Staffs
 - Participants
3. Do you think that without YP youths can handle and organize their own leisure time?
4. Is there anything else you would like to add?

(Thank the individual for their cooperation in the interview. Assure them of the confidentiality of the responses)

Interviewer:

(MAWARNI MOHAMED)