First, I would like to express my gratitude to almighty God. He was always there for me whenever I am lost in my PhD journey. There were many times I was doubted about my capabilities in doing and writing my thesis. It was almighty God who was always there to assured me and empowered me. Without his guidance and his blessing I will never able to come to this stage to complete my PhD. My loving God, I would like to express my gratitude for the guidance when I was lost. Thanks for the assurance when I was feeling doubt about myself. Thanks for the empowerment when I was in great fear. Finally, thanks for the comfort when I was feeling vulnerable.

Second, I would like to convey my gratitude to all the women survivors had encountered in my PhD journey. Without your courage, braveness, willingness and openness in sharing it is impossible for me to complete my PhD study. I am here to pray for all the women survivors that I have encountered able to experience the ultimate healing they wanted. I am here to wish, all the women survivors able continue touch lives thought their sharing because they successfully touched my live. Their sharing had made me to become a better counsellor, a better researcher and a better person.

Third, I would like to express my gratitude to my thesis supervisor, Dr. Melati Sumari who was always there to guide me when I needed her guidance. I would to say thank you for the precious trust that that she had given to me. Her trust, had trained me become an independent researcher. I was a novice researcher now I am proud to say I am a competent qualitative researcher. Thousand of thanks for the guidance and trust she had given to me.

Fourth, I would like to express my gratitude to all the seminar panels that had provided me constructive and critical feedbacks through all the seminars presentation. All the feedbacks given had made become more critical in evaluating my PhD research. Hence, I would like to take opportunity to express my gratitude to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Haslee Sharil, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Esther Sarojini Daniel, Dr. Shahril Jamaludin and Dr. Fatanah Mohamad of their guidance in my PhD works. I would like to take opportunity to express special thanks to deceased Prof. Dr. Suradi Salim who was always there to guide me since the first day I stepped into helping profession field. Your guidance, your wisdom and your care had made me become the person that I am proud to be today.

Fifth, I would like to articulate my thanks to all my friends who were there with me when I was in joy, when I was in fear and when I was lost in the journey of completing my PhD study. Their friendships have made my PhD journey more colorful, more meaningful and more fruitful.
