Holidays in the Jungle??

With the growing interest in nature, today such a holiday proposition does not sound far fetched at all. On the contrary it sounds quite trendy!

Almost entirely covered by forests harboring oddities such as giant flowers, flying squirrels, tree climbing pigs or gigantic cave systems, Sarawak is a fascinating destination for nature lovers.

As part of modern, prosperous and peaceful Malaysia, Sarawak offers a safe, comfortable and unforgettable jungle experience accessible to all. Just picture yourself trekking in timeless rainforests, listening to an elder tribesman recollection of his ancestors’ headhunting days, or trying to catch a glimpse of the elusive Orang Utan.

Of course, we could also write pages about our people’s diverse cultures and sincere hospitality, or about the lovely riverine capital of Kuching, or the tranquil beaches, pristine diving sites, world class golf and accommodation and the myriad other nature, culture and adventure attractions we have.

You might not have heard of us before, that is why we call Sarawak “The Hidden Paradise of Borneo”, and we invite you to share its wonders with us...

At the southern tip of Asia lies a precious stone.

Johor, Malaysia, has it all.

Johor, the southern gateway to Malaysia, has all to make your holiday an exciting and enjoyable adventure.

Watch the kuda kepong, a dance steeped in mythology. Visit the Sultan Ibrahim Building, the only living Royal Museum and the palace into a time zone of a century of exquisite culture and tradition. Johor's ceramics and handicrafts are some of the most artistic and creative. Dine at the most exotic places for seafood and the laksa. Johor's popular dish, Kukup, a town famous for its mouth-watering seafood, has restaurants on stilts by the sea.

Bask in the tranquility and the serenity of the countryside, on the casuarina-lined beaches of Desaru or in the crystal clear waters of the islands for jet-skiing, scuba diving or even fishing. Or walk through a million years of flora and fauna at the Endau-Rompin National Park. Then while in Johor Bahru city, stroll through the dozen shopping malls for the best bargains in designer fashion. You may also try your best handicap at the many challenging designer golf courses around the city, and in some major towns, by the beach.

Lots of fond memories to bring home to.
