My sincerest appreciation and heartfelt thanks to

My Supervisors,

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Goh Kim Leng for captivating my interest in this field of study for their meticulous, thorough and systematic guidance for their inspiration and constant encouragement for their invaluable time, patience and expertise for helping me to realize new horizons which I am now able to explore without which this research project would not have materialized

My Family,

Chee Wah, Roger and Brian for coping with my 'absence' for their immense support and understanding for keeping the family together with less of me for always being there when I need them for their love and care without which I could not have finished this course

And finally, a big THANK YOU to all my course lecturers at
