++ Age 10 and over in Singapore and age 15 and over in others.

(a) The total consists of the actual 1960 figures for the last three columns plus the 1957 census figures raised by the percentage increase in population from 1957 to 1960 which was 10% in the Federation of Malaya and 13% in Singapore. The percentage distribution figures in this column are based on these totals.

(b) This number includes a substantial number of workers engaged in handicrafts, rice milling and rubber processing off estates.
