ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost I would like to say my gratitude to God Almighty for giving me the strength and courage to complete this project paper.

I am gratefully indebted to my adviser and supervisor, Prof. Madya Dr. Kuldip Kaur for her professional guidance and constructive suggestions. She has been a source of inspiration. I greatly appreciate all the time and effort she devoted to my work. It was with her expert guidance and supervision that I was able to complete this project paper.

To my mother and father, Latifah and Megat Abdul Rahim, who have been tremendous supporters from my first day of school until now. I thank you both for the love and understanding you have given me and for making this dream come true.

My greatest praise is reserved for my husband, Ahmad. His love and encouragement, both emotionally and intellectually have been a source of strength. Thank you for believing in me. To my two lovely kids, Fadlan and Lutfil, thank you for being understanding and patient.
