ENAKMEN PDC

NO. 10 OF 1971

I assent,

(TUN SYED SHEH BADRULH.),
Governor

(Governor's Seal) 23rd June, 1971

An Enactment to establish a body corporate to be called the Penang Development Corporation and to provide for matters concerned therewith.

(17th November, 1969)

IT IS HEREBY ENACTED by the Legislature of the State of Penang as follows:-

PART I - PRELIMINARY

1. This Enactment may be cited as the Penang Development Corporation Enactment, 1971, and may be deemed to have come into force on the 17th day of November, 1969.

2. In this Enactment, unless the context otherwise requires -

"Chairman" means the Chairman of the Corporation appointed under Section 4 and includes any temporary Chairman;

"Corporation" means the Penang Development Corporation established under Section 3;

"Fund" means the fund established under Section 19;

"Member" means a member of the Corporation appointed under Section 5;

"Minister" means the Prime Minister or such Minister as may be nominated by him;

"The State" means the State of Penang.

PART II - THE CORPORATION

3. There is hereby established a body, which shall be a body corporate by the name of "The Penang Development Corporation", and shall have perpetual succession and may sue and be sued in its said name and, subject to and for the purposes of this Enactment, may enter into contracts and may acquire, purchase, take, hold and enjoy movable and immovable property of every description and may convey, assign, surrender, yield up, charge, mortgage, demise, reassign, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with, any movable or immovable property or any interest therein vested in the Corporation upon such terms as the Corporation deems fit but not inconsistent with the

280
4. The State Authority shall appoint a Chairman of the Corporation who, subject to the provisions of this Enactment, shall hold office for such period and on such terms as the State Authority may determine.

5. (1) The Corporation shall consist of:-

(a) the Chairman;

(b) two ex-officio members, who shall be the persons for the time being holding the offices of the State Secretary and the State Financial Officer;

(c) not more than six other members to be appointed by the State Authority; and

(d) three representatives of the Federal Government appointed by the Minister.

(2) A member of the Corporation other than those mentioned in subsections (b) and (d) of subsection (1) shall unless he sooner resigns or his appointment is revoked by the State Authority, hold office for a term not exceeding two years and shall be eligible for reappointment:

Provided that if a member resigns or his appointment is sooner revoked by the State Authority another person may be appointed to replace him for the remainder of the term of the member replaced.

(3) Any member of the Corporation may resign his office by notice in writing under his hand given to the Chairman.

(4) The State Authority may appoint any member of the Corporation to be temporary Chairman of the Corporation during the temporary incapacity through illness or during the temporary absence from the Federation, of the Chairman of the Corporation.

(5) The Chairman of the Corporation shall not be the Chief Executive of the Corporation.

5a. (1) A person shall be disqualified from being appointed or being a member of the Corporation:

(a) if he has been found guilty of an offence involving fraud, dishonesty or moral turpitude; or

(b) if he becomes bankrupt; or

(c) if he is of unsound mind or is otherwise incapable of performing his duties.

(2) A member shall vacate his office if he fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Corporation without the permission in writing of the person charged with the responsibility for the general administration of the Corporation or if he becomes disqualified under sub-section (1).
50. The Minister may, from time to time, give directions not inconsistent with the provisions of this enactment and the Corporation shall, as soon as possible, give effect to all such directions.

6. (1) The Corporation shall have a common seal which shall bear such device as the Corporation may approve and such seal may from time to time be broken, changed, altered and made anew by the Corporation, as the Corporation may think fit.

(2) Until a seal is provided by the Corporation under this section, a stamp bearing the inscription "Penang Development Corporation" may be used as the common seal.

(3) The common seal or stamp referred to in subsection (2) so long as it used as the common seal, shall be in the custody of the Chairman and all deeds, documents and other instruments requiring the seal of the Corporation shall be sealed with the seal or stamp of the Corporation in the presence of the Chairman and of a member or an officer of the Corporation authorised by the Corporation in writing to act in that behalf, who shall sign any such deed, document or other instruments to which such seal or stamp is affixed and such signing shall be sufficient evidence that such seal or stamp was duly and properly affixed and that the same is or is used as the lawful seal of the Corporation.

(4) The seal or stamp of the Corporation shall be officially and judicially noticed.

7. (1) The Corporation shall meet at least once in every three months for the purposes of considering, in addition to any other business for which a week's notice at least shall have been given, the annual budget for the next ensuing year.

(2) The Chairman may at any time call a meeting of the Corporation and shall, upon the written request of not less than three members of the Corporation, call a special meeting thereof within one month of the date of such request.

(3) Minutes in proper form of each meeting of the Corporation shall be kept by the Secretary and shall be confirmed and signed by the Chairman as soon as practicable thereafter at a subsequent meeting.

(4) The Corporation may invite any one or more persons to attend any particular meeting of the Corporation for the purpose of assisting or advising the Corporation but such invited persons shall have no right to vote.

8. (1) The quorum of the Corporation at any meeting shall be at least half of the members of the Corporation with at least one member being a representative of the Federal Government being present except that the quorum shall be at least two-thirds with at least one member being a representative of the Federal Government being present when the meeting deliberates or decides on matters referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (2) of Section 15C.
(2) If on any question to be determined by the Corporation there is an equality of votes, the member presiding at such meeting shall have a casting vote.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), the Corporation may determine its own procedure.

9. (1) No member of the Corporation shall have (and if he has, he shall forthwith cease to be such a member) any interest, directly or indirectly, personally or through relatives, financial or otherwise, in any scheme, project, enterprise or contract undertaken or which is proposed to be undertaken by the Corporation or in any matter under discussion by the Corporation.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to a member in respect of his interest in a Company or other body to which he has been nominated by the Corporation to be its representative and where such Corporation or other body is under the control or partial control of the Corporation.

10. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Enactment and of any Rules made thereunder the Corporation may by resolution delegate to any member, officer or servant of the Corporation the power and authority to carry out on their behalf such duties, powers or functions as the Corporation may determine.

(2) The Corporation may at the time of delegating any power or authority under subsection (1) to any member, officer, servant or committee, or at any time thereafter give directions as to the manner in which such delegated power or authority is to be exercised and may at any time revoke, modify or increase such delegation.

(3) Without prejudice to the generally of subsection (1) and subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the Corporation may by resolution delegate to any member, officer or servant of the Corporation or to any committee consisting of two or more such members, officers or servants of the Corporation, authority, to sanction expenditure up to such limit as the Corporation shall in each case prescribe, from the Fund or of any other money under the control of the Corporation.

(4) No resolution to delegate any duty, power or function under this section shall be valid unless at least five members of the Corporation vote in favour thereof. The State Secretary shall be present at and when such a resolution is taken.

11. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Enactment and of any Rules made thereunder, the Chairman may delegate in writing to any member, officer or servant of the Corporation the power and authority to carry out on his behalf his duties, powers or functions as he may determine.

(2) The Chairman may at the time of delegating any power or authority under subsection (1) to any member, officer or servant, or at any time thereafter give directions as to the manner in which such delegated power or authority is to be exercised and may at any time revoke, modify or increase such delegation.

Power of Corporation to delegate

(Amendment 5, 72)

Power of Chairman to delegate
PART III - OFFICERS AND SERVANTS

12. (1) The Corporation may appoint or employ such officers and servants as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of this enactment.

(2) The officers and servants of the Corporation shall be under the administrative control of the person charged with the responsibility for the general administration of the Corporation.

(3) All members, officers and servants of the Corporation shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code.

(4) An officer or servant of the Corporation shall not make use of any information acquired by virtue of his position as an officer or servant of the Corporation to gain directly or indirectly any improper advantage for himself or for any other person or to cause detriment to the Corporation.

13. The Public Authorities Protection Ordinance, 1948 shall apply to any action, suit, prosecution or proceeding against the Corporation or against any member, officer, servant or agent of the Corporation in respect of any act, neglect or default done or committed by the Corporation or such person in such capacity.

PART IV - DUTIES AND POWERS OF THE CORPORATION

14. It shall be the duty of the Corporation:-

(a) to promote the development of agricultural, industrial, commercial, trading and residential areas and/or projects in the State designated for such purposes; and to undertake agricultural, industrial, commercial, trading and housing enterprises;

(b) with the concurrence of the State Authority to finance, carry out or assist in carrying out any scheme of urban and rural development or redevelopment;

(bb) to develop and manage industrial estates and sites in the State;

(c) to undertake land reclamation work and participate in mining activities;

(d) to do all such other acts and things as are necessary for the exercise or performance of all or any of the functions and duties of the Corporation;

(e) to act as local authority in areas outside local authorities if so authorised in accordance with any written law.
15. Subject to the provisions of this Enactment the Corporation—

(a) shall have power to enter into partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, or otherwise, with any person, body or company carrying on or engaging in any business or transaction which the Corporation is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Corporation, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same;

(b) may enter into any arrangements with the State Government of Penang or any Government or Statutory Authority, municipal, local or otherwise, that may be conducive to the objects of the Corporation, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, any rights, privileges and concessions which the Corporation may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions;

(c) may from time to time promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights or liabilities of the Corporation, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly to benefit the Corporation.

(d) may purchase, exchange, lease and hold land, buildings and other immovable property.

15A. In addition to the duties imposed upon the Corporation by this Enactment, the Corporation may undertake such other functions and administer and expend such other monies for such purposes as the Government of the Federation or the State or any statutory authority may assign or give to it and in so doing the Corporation shall be deemed to be fulfilling the purposes of this Enactment.

15B. (1) When any immovable property, not being State land, is needed to be acquired by the Corporation for the purposes of this Enactment and cannot be acquired by agreement, such property may be acquired in accordance with the provisions of any written law relating to the acquisition of land for a public purpose for the time being in force in the State, and any declaration required under any such written law that such land is so needed may be made notwithstanding that compensation is to be paid out of the funds of the Corporation and such declaration shall have effect as if it were a declaration that such land is needed for a public purpose and in accordance with such written law.

(2) Expenses and compensation in respect of any immovable property acquired under subsection (1) shall be paid by the Corporation.

(3) When any immovable property has been acquired under this section, the Corporation shall execute the necessary documents of title in respect of such property and shall pay any rent to which such property may be subject.

15C. (1) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary, the provisions of Part IV shall be subject to the limitations prescribed by subsection (2).

(2) The Corporation shall not, without the prior written consent of the Minister of Finance, unless he gives a general or specific direction on the matter—

(a) establish or promote the establishment or expansion of companies or other bodies to carry on activities either under the control or partial control of the Corporation itself or independently;

(b) give financial assistance to any company, other statutory authority, any body or person by taking up of shares or debentures or by way of loan, advance, grant or otherwise;

(c) purchase, underwrite or otherwise acquire any stock and shares in any public or private company; or

(d) borrow money or enter into any guarantee involving financial liability.

(3) Where the Corporation exercises its power specified in subsection (2)(a) or where it already has control or partial control of the company or other body the members of the management of the company or other body shall comprise not less than one member or one officer of the Corporation.

(4) In giving any consent under subsection (2) the Minister of Finance may impose such terms and conditions as he may deem fit.

(5) No statutory authority shall be established by the Corporation either under this enactment or under any other law.

16. DELETED

17. The assets of the Corporation may, insofar as they are not required to be expended by the Corporation under this enactment, be invested in such manner as may be approved by the Minister of Finance.

18. DELETED
PART V - FUNDS AND REVENUES OF THE CORPORATION

19. There shall be established a Fund called the "Penang Development Corporation Fund" which shall consist of:

(a) such sums as may from time to time be paid to the Corporation out of the general revenues of the State of Penang, or donated by the Government of Penang, the Federal Government or any Government in the Federation or by any other person for the purposes of the Corporation;

(b) such sums as may from time to time be raised by the Corporation by loan;

(c) all rents and proceeds of sale profits and income and other funds derived by the Corporation directly or indirectly from the property belonging to the Corporation; and

(d) all such other sums as may from time to time be paid to the Corporation.

20. The Fund may be applied in defraying the following charges:

(a) the expenses and allowances of the members;

(b) the salaries, fees or remuneration of the officers, agents and servants and technical or other advisers of the Corporation;

(c) all costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the exercise of the powers of the Corporation under this Enactment;

(d) interest on any loan raised by the Corporation;

(e) sums required for the repayment of moneys borrowed;

(f) such sums as it may be deemed appropriate to set aside in respect of depreciation on the property of the Corporation;

(g) any architect, management and agency fees;

(h) granting of loans under Section 18;

(i) any contribution authorised by the Corporation towards the Penang State Scholarship Fund; and

(j) any other expenditure authorised by the Corporation and properly chargeable to revenue account.

21. (1) All moneys paid to the Corporation shall be paid into an account in such bank or banks as may be approved by the Corporation.

(2) All orders against the said account shall be signed by the Chairman and countersigned by the State Financial Officer or any Official of the Corporation.
21A. (1) The expenses of the Corporation shall be defrayed out of the monies in the fund in accordance with such estimates as may be authorised in subsection (2).

(2) Before the beginning of July of each year, the Corporation shall submit to the Chief Minister an estimate of the expenses for the following year in such form and with such particulars as the Chief Minister may require, and the Chief Minister shall before the beginning of September of each year notify the Corporation of the amount authorised for expenses generally or of the amount authorised for each description of expenditure.

(3) The Corporation may at any time submit to the Chief Minister a supplementary estimate for any one year and the Chief Minister may allow the whole or any part of the additional expenditure included therein.

22. The Corporation shall cause to be kept proper accounts and other records of the Corporation's transactions and affairs in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and shall do all things necessary to ensure that all income are properly accounted for and that all expenditures out of its fund, including payments in respect of salaries, remuneration and other monetary benefits to members of the Corporation and its employees, are properly authorised and that adequate control is maintained over the assets, or in the custody of, the Corporation and over the incurring of any liability by the Corporation.

22A. (1) The Minister or Minister of Finance may at any time direct such person as he may appoint to make an investigation of the books, accounts and transactions of the Corporation.

(2) The Corporation shall afford such person access to its books, accounts and documents and shall give such information as may be required by the person to conduct the investigations:

Provided that the books, accounts and documents shall not be required to be produced at such times and at such places as shall interfere with the proper conduct of the normal daily business of the Corporation.

22B. (1) The Corporation shall have a financial year beginning on 1st January.

(2) The accounts of the Corporation shall be audited annually by the Auditor-General or other auditor appointed by the Corporation with the approval of the Minister of Finance.

(3) The Corporation shall within 6 months after the end of each financial year have its accounts audited and transmitted to the Minister together with a copy of any observations made by the Auditor-General or the auditor appointed under subsection (2) on any statement on the accounts of the Corporation and a copy of the annual report referred to in section

288
(4) The Chief Minister shall cause a copy of every such statement together with a copy of any observations made by the Auditor-General or the auditor appointed under subsection (2) on any statement or on the accounts of the Corporation and a copy of the annual report referred to in subsection (3) and Section 23 to be laid on the table of the next meeting of the Legislature of the State.

23. The Corporation shall not later than 30th June after each financial year cause to be made and transmitted to the Minister and the Chief Minister, a report dealing with the activities of the Corporation during the preceding year.

24. The Corporation may employ and pay agents and technical advisors whether solicitors, bankers, stockbrokers, surveyors or valuers or other persons, to transact any business or do any act required to be transacted or done in execution of the duties of the Corporation or for the better carrying into effect the purposes of this enactment and may pay all charges and expenses so incurred.

PART VI - WINDING UP OF THE CORPORATION

25. (1) The State Authority may by order published in the Gazetto direct that the Corporation shall be wound up and dissolved.

(2) Upon the dissolution of the Corporation the assets of the Corporation shall, after payment of all liabilities, be disposed of in such manner as the Minister may after consultation with the State Authority determine.

PART VII - MISCELLANEOUS

26. The Corporation may, with the approval of the Minister after his consultation with the Chief Minister, make regulations for the better carrying out of the provisions of this enactment provided they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this enactment.

26A. The Corporation may with the approval of the State Authority make rules not inconsistent with the provisions of this enactment:

(a) prescribing the manner in which documents, cheques and instruments of any description shall be signed or executed on behalf of the Corporation;

(b) prescribing for the responsibility and control of officers and servants of the Corporation;

(c) prescribing the circumstances in which members of the Corporation and officers and servants of the Corporation may receive travelling expenses and subsistence allowances, and fixing the rates of such expenses and allowances;
(d) prescribing for the establishment and management as from such date specified in the rules, of contributory provident fund, and for the transfer into that fund of contributions or parts of contributions paid into any other provident fund in anticipation of the establishment of the first mentioned fund;

(e) the placing of contracts and the manner in which and the persons by whom such contracts may be entered into on its behalf;

(f) making loans under the provisions of section 18 of this Enactment;

(g) imposing fees in such cases as may be determined by the Corporation; and

(h) generally for the exercise of the powers and duties of the Corporation under the provisions of this Enactment.

268. The State Authority may make rules for any other purposes not inconsistent with the provisions of this Enactment.
