ABSTRACT

Islamic Banking has established in Malaysia for about 29 years. Currently, Malaysia is in aggressive mission to promote Islamic Banking in the international market. However, some argues that Islamic Banking in Malaysia do not receive a satisfactory support and participation from the public mainly due to poor awareness on Islamic Banking products and services, misconception against Islamic Banking system and lack in terms of brand recognition. This study seeks to explore the consumers’ awareness on Islamic Banking products, perspectives on Islamic Banking as well as perception on service brand equity. The findings of this study revealed that awareness and perspectives on Islamic Banking system and its’ products are lacking. This study reveals that religion is the main focus as there is significant differences for all the aspects studied – perspectives, awareness and service brand equity. This study also discovers important dimensions for Islamic Banking service brand development namely employees, environment, service satisfaction, bank operation and bank features. In addition, the relationship between service brand equity and service satisfaction is also investigated and it reveals that 65% of the service brand equity dimensions predicted service satisfaction and the strong contributors being brand personality, aroused feelings, environment, employees, bank operation and self brand image. The findings of this study will provide a holistic and comprehensive marketing insight to improve and strengthen Islamic Banking as well have implications for Islamic Banking management, marketing and branding managers.
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to everyone who have assisted, encouraged, supported and inspired me to complete this research project.

First and foremost, I would like express my gratitude to god for giving me the strength and ability to complete this research project within the stipulated time. During my MBA course, I have faced many challenges in my life - the toughest been the sudden death of my beloved father. I believe that god has truly guided me to handle the challenges. Without god’s blessing, completion of this research project and the MBA course is not possible.

Secondly, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Dr Norbani Che Ha for her support, encouragement and guidance. Without her contribution, this research project would not possibly done successfully.

Thirdly, I would like to thank my mother - the love of my life, for her generous and unwavering support throughout my life.

Last but not least, I would like to thank my good friends especially Jenny, Phang Soon Yeow, Lim Pei Yee, Geeta, Letchumi, Aunty Connie and Nor Farhana for their encouragement and emotional support throughout the MBA course.

   4.5.2 Research Objective Two

      4.5.2.1 Hypothesis Testing

      4.5.2.2 Analysis and Results

      4.5.2.3 Discussion

   4.5.3 Research Objective Three

      4.5.3.1 Hypothesis Testing

      4.5.3.2 Analysis and Results

      4.5.3.3 Discussion
4.5.4 Research Objective Four

4.5.4.1 Hypothesis Testing

4.5.4.2 Analysis and Results

4.5.4.3 Discussion

4.5.5 Summary of Research Results

CHAPTER 5: CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS

5.0 Introduction

5.1 Discussion

5.2 Theoretical Implications

5.3 Practical Implications

5.4 Limitation of the Study
